Box No. I Basis of this opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.

☐ This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).

2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:

a. type of material

- ☐ a sequence listing
☐ table(s) related to the sequence listing

b. format of material

- ☐ in written format
☐ in computer readable form

c. time of filing/furnishing

- ☐ contained in the international application as filed.
☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.

3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

4. Additional comments:

INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/KR2004/001153

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1-14	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	1-14	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-14	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations :

Reference is made to the following documents:

D1 : US 6274924 D2 : US 6204523 D3 : KR 2001-114224 A
D4 : JP 2000-244022 A D5 : US 5748658

The present application is related to a high-power light emitting diode package having at least two heat sinks.

D1, the closest document to the present application, discloses a surface mountable LED package having a heat-sinking slug that is inserted into an insert-molded lead frame. It also discloses an LED package structure in which a slug may include an optical reflector cup. And an LED chip and a thermally conducting sub-mount may be attached in that cup.

D2 discloses an LED package structure which is similar to D1 in figure 1.

D3 discloses a light emitting packaging comprising: an LED chip mounted on a base; lead frames connected by lead wires from an LED chip; and a heat extraction material.

D4 discloses a chip type LED package which is composed of an insulating substrate; a flat plate bonded to one surface of the substrate; an LED chip provided on a flat plate. And the flat plate is constituted by bonding first and second metallic thin plate separated from each other in an insulating and separating section to each other.

D5 explains a semiconductor laser element having a heat sink on the rear surface of the substrate.

Although D1 discloses a basic structure for a high power LED package and D4 discloses an LED package containing plural LED chips separated from each other in an insulating and separating section, none of the documents D1-D5 refer to an LED package having at least two heat sinks connected to the main body of the package. D1-D5 are thus considered to be little relevance to the present application.

Compared with the prior art as cited in the International Search Report, the present invention(Claims 1-14) is believed to be novel and to involve an inventive step under PCT Article 33(2) and 33(3).

And the present invention has industrial applicability.
